

Terms and Conditions for Patrons Attending Our Public Events and Other Meetings

Purchase of your ticket or proceeding with the registration for a free event confirms that you have read and understood the following special terms and conditions and that you agree to comply with them.

1.: Admission, Ticket Sales and Payment

a) Australian Liberty Alliance Ltd, Australian Liberty Alliance Management Pty Ltd (referred to as “ALA” from here on) or the contracted event organiser, jointly referred to as “We”, “Us” and “Our”) reserve the right to refuse entry, evict troublesome patrons, change venues and schedules or cancel the event at our sole discretion.

b) For ticketed events there will be no walk-up ticketing and no facility for payment of tickets at the venues. All patrons must book and prepay for admission, or register for free events, prior to the cut-off dates for the event. Bookings for ticketed events can be made and prepaid by credit card and PayPal through our event website, or by other means as advised on the event information. Under no circumstances send cash to ALA. If you don't have a credit card you can open an account with PayPal and transfer money from a bank account into your PayPal account before finalising your online booking, please see www.paypal.com for details. Alternatively you can also make a one-off credit card payment through PayPal.

c) If your booking is made through our call centre or by posted form and confirmation of booking and payment require posting to your mailing address, you may be charged an additional fee to cover manual handling and postage. When booking via our call centre or posted form please allow sufficient time for the booking confirmation to arrive by regular mail. We will not be liable if posted booking confirmations arrive late, or are lost by Australia Post.

d) If you book online you will be emailed a confirmation of booking and payment without extra charge. You must print and retain your confirmation of booking and payment and present this at the venue to our check-in staff.

e) Bookings and payments are final and there is no refund if you change your mind or become unable to attend for reasons outside our control. Any problems with the booking website contact us by email events@australianliberty.org or on 1300 230 063. Contact PayPal with any issues related to your payment. We can not help with payment-related problems.

f) Bookings may not, without our prior written consent be transferred, resold or offered for resale or used for advertising, promotion or other commercial purposes (including competitions and trade promotions), either by the original purchaser or any subsequent bearer. If a booking is used in breach of this condition, the booking may be cancelled without a refund and the bearer of the ticket may be refused admission.

2.: Cancellation and Change of Venue

a) If we are forced to change a venue, we will undertake reasonable effort to inform all patrons by email or text message. It is important that we have a current email address or mobile number on file and/or that you check our website in the days leading up to the event.

b) Should we be forced to cancel an event, we will undertake reasonable effort to inform all patrons by email, text message and on our website and you will receive reimbursement of the ticket price. We will not be liable for any direct, special, indirect or consequential loss or damage of any kind.

3.: Venue Details, Check-In and Seating

a) For security reasons the venue details will be disclosed to paid-up or registered patrons shortly before the scheduled event by email or text message. Patrons who book via our call centre and have neither email nor mobile phone will receive the venue details in a separate mail. This minimises the likelihood of venue details being published on social media and uninvited guests potentially causing a nuisance. Should you have paid but not receive the venue details 24 hours prior to the booked event, please contact ALA or our call centre. The venue details are made available to you subject to the condition you treat them as privileged and confidential information. We may seek compensation for any damages incurred if you breach this condition.

b) For ticketed events patrons are required to present their confirmation of payment and photo ID at designated check-in tables. You will be issued with a non-transferable individual token to pass security. You must keep this token intact and with you at all times until you leave the venue. For free events you will need to check in with your name and contact details as per your registration.

c) If you purchased tickets for other guests, or registered other guests with your contact details, please ensure your party checks in together as a group, or you stay back at the check-in until the last member of your group has arrived. Acceptable as photo ID for ticketed events are: Australian drivers license, passport, Australian firearm license, working-with-children photo ID card, Aust. Government-issue photo ID card. All IDs must be originals.

d.) We advise all patrons to come early as check-in and security screening may take extra time. If there is a problem with your booking we will ask you to move from the normal check-in to a dedicated table to resolve the problem.

e.) A small section of seats may be reserved for honorary guests, security personnel and volunteers of the event organiser. Otherwise seats are not numbered and can not be reserved.
